Title: God's Faithfulness In Your Story

Speaker: Susannah Thackray

Date: 16 August 2026

“Every story of following Jesus is extraordinary—because He is faithful in them all.”

Introduction

This week, thank God for His unique faithfulness in your story and share it with someone.

Have you ever felt your faith story isn't dramatic enough to matter?

No two faith stories are the same—and that's the beauty of God's faithfulness. This week, Susannah Thackray shares how God works in a variety of ways: sometimes through dramatic transformation, sometimes through quiet steadiness, and always through His never-ending grace. Whether your journey began with a lightning-bolt moment or a gentle unfolding over years, the focus isn't on how spectacular your story is—but on the extraordinary God at the centre of it all.

We explore testimonies like Paul's radical conversion, Timothy's steady nurturing, and Samuel's gradual learning to hear God's voice. Susannah encourages us to stop comparing our journeys and instead celebrate the unique faithfulness of Jesus in each of our lives. No part of your story is wasted—it all points back to the Saviour.

Scripture

Acts 9:1-19 — But Saul, still breathing threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest,

2 Timothy 1:5 — having been reminded of the sincere faith that is in you; which lived first in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice, and, I am persuaded, in you also.

2 Timothy 3:14-15 — But you remain in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them.

1 Samuel 3 — The child Samuel ministered to Yahweh before Eli. Yahweh's word was precious in those days. There were not many visions, then.

1 Samuel 7:12 — Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and called its name Ebenezer, saying, "Yahweh helped us until now."

Don't Miss This

- Your Story Matters: God's faithfulness is shown just as clearly in steady, lifelong journeys as in dramatic conversions.
- Don't Compare—Celebrate: Comparison steals joy, but celebrating each other's stories helps us see God's unique work in every life.
- Remember His Faithfulness: Look back and recognise the ways God has rescued, kept, and shaped you—each moment is evidence of His grace.

Let's Chat

1. How have you experienced God's faithfulness in your own story, big or small?
2. Do you relate more to Paul's, Timothy's, or Samuel's journey of faith—and why?
3. Why do you think we often undervalue 'ordinary' testimonies?
4. Who has played a significant role in helping you learn about and follow Jesus?
5. What's one way you can celebrate or share your own story of God's faithfulness this week?
